

A Weekly Note From
Pastor Mike Bronson

I'm glad you've joined us this morning, or whenever you are reading this. The last week has been a long year. I dearly wish we could gather today. We certainly need it. We will do the best we can with the technology available.

I think we can all agree life will never be the same. Bad things are happening. Many people have been significantly impacted. While bad things are happening, we can also find some good. People are reaching out to help others. Jesus is still being proclaimed. And I am hopeful this will open doors for the gospel.

Our purpose as a church is to adjust so we can continually proclaim the gospel and glorify our Lord. How can we do that? A few thoughts come to mind:

- 1. While others might be losing their head, stay resolute and calm. Jesus is Lord. This is our charge to personify all that He tells us in His Word.
- 2. This may be the best opportunity you will ever have to preach the gospel to someone. Be ready to give an account for the hope that is within you. Initiate a conversation.
- 3. Stay connected with one another. Text. Call. And yes, stop by. We can still gather. Just make it less than 10 people. Be smart. Wash your hands. This immunocompromised pastor thinks that's a good habit to adopt anyway.
- 4. Be open handed and open hearted. Demonstrate God's love.
- 5. Don't be afraid. We were not given a spirit of fear.
- 6. Cherish our religious freedom. Many believers are forced to meet in secret.

I can't tell you how much I miss you. I freely speak on behalf of Ryon and Nathan when I say that we love you very much. Let us know how we can pray for you.

- Bro. Mike
