

For those of you worshipping with us today, thanks for being here. And those of you watching at home, I'm glad you are part of the West Haven family.

I am hoping that beginning next week we can make a few more definitive decisions regarding the future. We will, of course, wait on the guidelines given by local, state, and federal officials. In the meantime, please reach out to each other. We want to be sure everyone feels loved and encouraged. And if I can bless you, don't hesitate to call on me.

We will have an in-person Bible Study at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday night. Chris Small will lead it as I prepare for my daughter's wedding this Saturday. Thanks to Chris for leading it.

I am excited to resume our series in Philippians today. Paul tells us to "work out our salvation." We mustn't be passive in the sanctification process. To say, "Whatever will be, will be." No, we must actively pursue holiness. We can do nothing apart from Him so this is not an effort of the flesh. But here is the fruit of self-control that is involved in becoming a holy man or woman of God. I hope you are blessed this morning.

I have to add that I am thankful for the faithful saints who give on a regular basis to support the work of the ministry. I have read of many churches with a 25% or greater shortfall in giving. Not us. And that is to the glory of God and will be to the praise of the Father for all of eternity. God bless you!
