

Good morning! Thanks for joining us this morning! I have a lot of information for you today. God bless you for being here!

- 1. I wrote a sermon based on Phil 2:14 before we had to shut down. I'll preach that today. The main focus is on "grumbling." It has convicted me greatly and at the same time, built me up. I pray that it does the same for you to the glory of Jesus!
- 2. This Friday night June 19 at 6:30 p.m. we are hosting a Fellowship Night for everyone. You have two options:
  - a. In the Train Station, we will be showing the movie "American Gospel: Christ Crucified." It's 2 hours and 52 minutes long. Think of it as a very short "Secret Church." This is one of the more significant movies I've seen. I encourage you to watch it. Bring your kids. We will probably stop it halfway through for questions or comments.
  - b. If you don't want to watch the movie, come to the Worship Center and hang out. Bring your Bible and we can praise the Lord and talk about spiritual things. Your kids can play.
- I hope you'll join us. So we can plan well, would you mind sending me an email at mike@westhavenbaptist.org and let me know how many are coming? It's not a firm commitment. It just enables us to have an idea of how to prepare.
- 3. After this Sunday, we will again evaluate our services and the times. We would be interested in any feedback from you.
- 4. We are having in person Wednesday night Bible studies at 6:30 p.m.
- 5. Blake Waters' Sunday School class is meeting next week. We will be working on restarting some Sunday School classes soon.
- 6. Our biggest challenge is childcare. Pray for us in that area.
- 7. A great need is to reach out to those who haven't been here. Some are still reluctant because of the Coronavirus and that's fine. We respect that decision. Others are going to need some encouragement to return. Please reach out to some people you haven't seen and check on them. Building encouragement into one another is more important than ever these days!
