

I'm glad you are with us today. We'll go to Philippians 2 for an unusual passage of Scripture. At first, it may seem to speak of mundane things such as travel arrangements and sicknesses and personal concerns. Yet as we dig into it, we learn of God's great principles of blessing one another in a local church.

Nathan LaFave is being proposed to be our full-time associate pastor. His main job duties would be Music/Technology and Student Ministry. However, considering the current circumstances caused by COVID-19, both he and pastor Mike will adjust duties accordingly.

We'll consider Nathan at our Member's Meeting at approximately 11:15 a.m. on July 12. Assuming the vote is affirmative, he will start August 1. For more details, please refer to the email that was sent on Wednesday of this week. Let me hasten to add that I'm very excited about the prospect of working with Nathan full time!

We want to continue to reach out to our community. We can do this effectively with a team of enthusiastic volunteers, probably between 5-9 in size. Do you have a heart to bless our community? Let me know if you have interest. You can email me at mike@westhavenbaptist.org. I've already talked to a few of you about this. At this point, you would not be committing to the team. When I have enough people, we will meet to discuss specifics. Then you can decide if you want to move forward with it.

The potential here is fantastic. I am very excited about the possibilities! We already have momentum. I love seeing the look on people's faces when we love them unconditionally. And God gets the glory. Just as the Good Samaritan ministered unconditionally, we want to show the same unconditional love to our community!
