

Whether it's via Facebook Live or YouTube or in person, welcome to West Haven on another day our Lord has given us. Would you pray with me that we would use each day to grow in holiness and to become more like His Son?

Remember to join us in the Worship Center at approximately 11:15 a.m. this morning for our semi-annual Members' Meeting. On the agenda is voting on Nathan LaFave as a full-time pastor. His main duties will be student ministry and music/technology. (However, during COVID both his job responsibilities and mine are "doing what it takes!")

I'm reading the biography of Martyn Lloyd-Jones by Iain Murray. His ministry launched in Wales in the late 1920s-early 1930s. Those were the days after the Great Welsh Revival of 1904-05. In just 25 short years, the spiritual state of the people Wales became deplorable. But God's hand was on Lloyd-Jones. He was a one man revival!

I long to see a day when the Holy Spirit awakens the lost and revives His people. I long to see a day when the "fire falls." I am under no illusion that a revival would reform our government or renew our society. Those can be side effects of a revival but they are not the purpose of revival at all. The purpose is that God is greatly honored and put in His rightful place. And men and women and boys and girls who were lost and without hope are brought into His kingdom. That's the purpose. But wouldn't it be something if God did such a mighty work in our day that the decline of Western Civilization was reversed? It's interesting to note that when revival struck Britain in 1700s, laws were passed to outlaw child labor. The 40 hour work week came into being to give workers a work/life balance. Sexual mores became normative. And the momentum led to William Wilberforce and his campaign to outlaw slavery in the 1800s.

Man cannot generate revival. God is sovereign in that regard. But as it has well been said, we can "set our sails to catch the wind when He blows." May God grant such a mighty outpouring of His Spirit today, right here. And may we prepare our hearts and lives for it by holy living.

Look for an email next week as we will have two additional adult Sunday School classes meeting in addition to Blake Waters' class, which meets at 8:30 a.m. in the Train Station.
