

In 2007, police used a stun gun to remove a college student from a Q&A with then Sen. John Kerry. The student uttered a now-famous phrase “Don’t tase me bro.” 2020 has “tased” all of us. However, with many of you, I sense it’s time to get back (as much as possible) to doing the work of the ministry. One of the main emphases we want to restart is showing generous and radical love to our community. Why? It’s one of the two great commandments. Jesus said, “Love your neighbor as yourself.” And when it comes to evangelism, our deeds have to match our words.

We’ve come a long way in this regard but we are also just getting started. Pray for our Community Outreach Team which has its first meeting this week. Be ready to serve and love in the future. All of us can be involved.
