

A Weekly Note From
Pastor Mike Bronson

Welcome to West Haven on a late summer morning in the outdoors. No one knew at the start of this year we would be doing “church on the parking lot” but here we are, and we are blessed to be here!

This week, as much as possible, we “get back to normal.” AWANA, Student Ministry, and Adult Bible Study all begin Wednesday. We are taking the appropriate precautions and will modify those as necessary. Our AWANA leaders have exercised a high level of devotion by creating a plan to continue with the ministry. It took a lot of work. I am grateful for them.

Pastor Nathan is very excited about the passion of our Student Ministry leaders this year. (P.S. Get your student to Student Ministry! Nathan will be sharing his plans for the year at some point. They are very exciting. He has thought this through well. His passion for students and families is evident and will bear fruit. Be sure to check it out.)

And then I’ll be leading Bible Study at 6:30 and you are welcome to attend that.

If you have been visiting lately, thank you so much for being here. If you would like to explore membership, just tell me or email me at mike@westhavenbaptist.org. We can do classes virtually, in person, or a hybrid. Also, if you have spiritual questions or if you need to be baptized, let Pastor Nathan or myself know. The church is still moving forward! And we want you to be part of it.

And to all of you, please put this on your radar screen: pray about serving in some way in your church. Every member is a minister. As we attempt to reconstruct some parts of the ministry (or refresh and renovate other parts) we need all hands on deck. You were created to be part of God’s redemptive work. The locomotive of that work is the church. You are needed and valued. We will make opportunities known in the future. And I’m sure AWANA and Student Ministry can use extra hands.
