

Welcome to West Haven (or at least, welcome to our parking lot) on this beautiful Lord's Day! We continue through Philippians by looking at Phil 3:15-21. The title of the sermon is "Staying the Course in Unsettled Times." God's Word always speaks to the need of the hour, doesn't it?

AWANA and Student Ministry and Adult Bible Study started Wednesday. I came here in May 2006 so this will be the 15th year I've seen these ministries operate. I am grateful for the faithful people who do the heavy lifting. Some of you have served each of the 15 years I've been here!

We can say that we are "faithful in" these ministries but there is another phrase I prefer. We are "relentless through" these ministries. I like that phrase because every word of truth is light, relentlessly shining into the kingdom of darkness. It is the church prevailing against the gates of hell. It's hand to hand combat against the forces of evil. The devil would rather we shut down, not exert ourselves, and let the church be dark on Wednesdays. But when we proclaim the Word, the promise is that it will not return void. Its harvest cannot be measured by human standards. But by heaven's standards, we know that our labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Remember to stay for lunch today and after the service next week. You can get your food and eat anywhere in the building or the parking lot. Just enjoy the fellowship! The meal is free. We'll have a basket downstairs if you want to give to offset the cost.

If there is anything the turmoil of our times teaches us, it is to (2 Pe 2:10) "make your calling and election sure." Thank God He gives us (Titus 1:2) the "hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised long ages ago."
